A reasonable accommodation is some modification or change that can be made to the policies, procedures, or services that will assist an otherwise eligible applicant with a disability to have equal access to participate in the program or necessary to afford applicant full enjoyment of the premises. Reasonable modifications are those that would not place an undue financial burden to the apartment complex. Modification requests will be evaluated individually on a case-by-case basis. Reasonable accommodations may include, but are not limited to, adjustments or modifications to buildings, facilities, dwellings, and may also include provision of auxiliary aids, such as readers, interpreters, and materials in accessible formats.

If you believe your housing needs can best be met through a reasonable accommodation, please check below all that applies to your household. A physician or health care provider must document verification of the disability.

- ☐ Ground Floor Unit*

- ☐ One-Level Unit*
